Nancy Ann, a daughter of Paul and Mary (Moreland) Howell, was born in Charles County November 18, 1747 and died in Harrison County WV before August 1825.

Thomas Ogden was the administrator of the estate of Ann Ogden, his mother. She died intestate and Joseph Campbell, Fielding Boggess, Charles McIntire and Benjamin Reeder were assigned by the court to inventory her estate. Joseph Campbell, Fielding Boggess and Charles McIntire prepared the inventory and submitted it to the Court on August 10, 1825. The inventory was recorded in the November 1825 Court minutes. A part of the estate were notes held on John Richardson, Sarah Martin and William R. Ogden.

Jonathan took an oath of allegiance March 1778 in Charles County, MD. He made a will August 13, 1807 in Harrison County, VA. His will is recorded in Harrison County VA (WV) Will Book 1, p.373-4, April 1808.

Jonathan served the Colonies in the American Revolution as a private in the MD Militia of the Continental Army, 1777, Capt. Benj. Cawood Company, Charles County, 26th Battalion.

Jonathan leased land from James Middleton in Charles County for a period of at least from 1787 to 1793 as noted in the Middleton estate inventory. The inventory was recorded in the February 1795 Charles County Court. The rent was paid in part by currency and in part by tobacco. The rent for the year 1793 was 1400 pounds of neat tobacco.

Jonathan is shown with a family of 5 males and 6 females in the 1790 MD US Census. Jonathan, his son Thomas and son-in-law Jeremiah Robey, are listed in the 1800 MD Census, Charles County and his son Rode is shown in Prince George's County Census.

Jonathan and his son, Thomas, purchased a tract of land of 100 acres in Harrison County, Virginia in February 1804 from Andrew and Lydia Snyder for 100 dollars. The land was on the east side of the West Fork River above the mouth of Snyder's run.

Sarah Ogden, a daughter of Jonathan and Ann (Howell) Ogden, was born in Port Tobacco, Charles County, MD May 5, 1778 and died February 12, 1854. She married Michael Miles Martin about 1805 in MD. Michael was the son of Henry Martin. Michael died before December 1822. In the conveyance of a deed to Catherine Ogden, relict of Samuel, all of Samuel's brothers and sisters including their husbands signed the conveyance. Michael M Martin did not sign; however his wife Sarah did. Sarah lived on Mudlick Run in Harrison County, VA. She is buried in Mudlick Cemetery.

8.SAMUEL OGDEN 2.JONATHAN OGDEN 1.WILLIAM OGDEN

Samuel Ogden, a son of Jonathan and Ann (Howell) Ogden, was born in Port Tobacco, Charles County, MD in February 1781. Samuel died before August 1817 in MD.

Samuel married Catherine Matthews before 1810. Upon Samuel's death, Catherine Matthews, his widow, and her brother petitioned for letters of Administration for Samuel's estate from August Term 1817 of Orphans Court in Charles County, MD. On September 20th of 1817 Catherine relinquished her rights to Administration of her husband, Samuel Ogden's, estate to her brother Alexander Matthews. This action was recorded in the October Term 1817 Orphans Court.

In the 1810 US Census of Charles County, MD, Samuel Ogden is listed as head of household with 2 males (age 26-45 years) and one female (age 26-45 years). At this time Samuel would have been about 29 years old. The female in the household is probably Catherine Ogden, Samuel's wife. Neither Samuel nor Catherine are noted in the Charles County 1820 US Census.

Catherine Ogden, relict of Samuel, requested a deed for two lots in Port Tobacco that either was owned by Samuel or his father, Jonathan. The conveyance that transferred the land to Catherine in fee simple and for consideration of 400 dollars was signed by all of Jonathan's children and their spouses that were living at the time. The conveyance was started in December 1822 and completed in April 1823.
